Notes From Foreign Lands, through out the Nation and Particularly the Great Southwest.

The body of Marie Smith, 10 years old, who had been missing since last Wednesday, was found in the woods near her home in Ashby Park, N. J. Thomas Williams, known in the neighborhood as "Black Diamond," a noted wood chopper employed by the family, whose ax was found near the body, was arrested in his room.

The strike of dressmakers and hatmakers employed by transcontinental express companies in New York and Jersey City was declared off and the men returned to work.

The Illinois board of equalization made its final report and adjourned for the year. It finds that the actual value of all taxable property in the state on April 1, 1919, was $3,339,396,228. The assessed value is one-third of this amount, or $1,113,132,076.

Water Lindell, a motor cyclist, collided with a wagon carrying a four-year-old child and was instantly killed. Lindell was the fastest rider in Kansas City.

The striking express drivers and helpers of Jersey City nullified the agreement reached between the New York strikers and the five transcontinental companies. The agreement was conditioned on the consent of the New Jersey men to return to work. They have refused. The situation now reverts to the position it occupied before Mayor Gaynor took a hand.

Mrs. Laura Parnsworth-Schenk is a prisoner in the county jail in Wheeling, W. Va., charged with poisoning her husband, John Schenk, a millionaire pork packer. Schenk sank so low that his death was reported. The Schenk family chandelier is under surveillance.

William L. Parker, 77 years old, and his 75-year-old wife were arrested in Geneva, O., in connection with the shooting of three 15-year-old school boys, one of whom, Edward Rhodes, is dead. The other two boys, Philip Kramer and Earl Rawson, are seriously injured.

Because her husband in kissing her used too much ardor or too much strength, and because she objects to cohabitation as a general proposition, Mrs. Amelia Schmidt of Minneapolis is suing her husband for divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

The total note circulation of the national banks of the United States this month reached the highest record since the creation of the national banking system. The total circulation amounted to $724,840,348, practically all secured by deposits of government bonds with the treasury.

President Taft has sailed from Charleston, S. C., on the armored cruiser North Carolina for the isthmus of Panama, where he will personally inspect the progress of the work on the great canal. The North Carolina is conveyed by her sister ship, the Montana, these being the same vessels that were used by Mr. Taft in his Panama trip just before the inauguration. The president will be gone about twelve days, spending only four days on the isthmus.

Democratic success throughout the country carried with it disaster for Republicans in the United States senate. The terms of 30 senators expire March 2, 1921. There is also a vacancy caused by the death of Senator Dooliver of Iowa. Of these there are 26 Republicans and five Democrats. Successors to these will be selected by the legislatures of the various states this winter. There will be sent to Washington as a result 16 Republicans and 13 Democrats, with two states still classed as doubtful. This is a gain of eight seats by the Democrats.

Officers in the revenue cutter service are firm in the belief serious trouble is certain to come between Japan and the United States over the sealing question. Officers of the revenue cutter Manning, which has reached Portland, assert wholesale slaughter and poaching by Japanese is going on along the three-mile limit of the Pribyl Islands.

United States Senator Alexander Stephens Clay of Georgia died of heart disease at the Robertson sanitarium in Atlanta after a long illness.

In Manhattan, Kan., Edward Peterson, aged 19, is dead and Edward Larson, his friend, is seriously ill as the result of drinking beer purchased in "dry" Kansas. The beverage is supposed to have contained strychnine.

To handle more effectively the large cotton trade between the southern states and Italy and to provide direct transportation for Italian products to ports in the south, a new steamer service has been arranged between Genoa and ports on the Gulf of Mexico.

All of the rivers in northern Wales are at flood stage, vast damage has been done and many are homeless.

Wesley Turner, father of breathitt county, was shot and killed on the street near the Jackson (Ky.) jail by "Red Jake" Noble. A renewal of feud conflicts is threatened and the officials are taking steps to preserve order.

Marking the first conviction in the history of this country on finger-print evidence, which was originated by Mark Twain in "Pudd'nhead Wilson," Thomas Jennings, a negro, was found guilty by a jury in the criminal court in Chicago of the murder of Clarence A. Hillier on the night of September 19.

Mrs. Barrett, wife of the junior editor of the Canton (Mo.) Press, died from burns received when a coal stove in which she was attempting to rekindle a smoldering fire with kerosene exploded.

Through insults to the American flag and assaults made openly upon American citizens in the streets, the anti-American demonstration which began in the City of Mexico with the burning of the Mexican Herald offices developed into an affair of international importance. An attack was made upon the plant of El Imparcial and the mailing and distributing departments on the ground floor were completely wrecked. The wreckage was fired. Then the mounted police charged with drawn swords. One of the attackers was run through and killed. A vicious protest was organized by the American ambassador with the Mexican department of foreign relations, and at the same time the facts were telegraphed to Washington and instructions asked for.

When his automobile, going at 30 miles an hour, collided with a wagon in the downtown section of Pittsburg, Peter Herman, millionaire president of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Milk company, was instantly killed.

The imposing of a life sentence on Sergeant Manley of Company E, state militia, for having bayoneted and killed a spectator when President Felt was in Dallas last year has practically demoralized the Texas National Guard. Three line officers and four company officers are urging the governor to muster them out. It is said the federal government may interfere in Manley's behalf.

A strike vote will be taken among engineers of 61 railroads west, south and north of Chicago, including the Illinois Central, following termination of the negotiations between the road and grand officers of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which has been in session since September 26. Difference in wage increases of approximately seven per cent and alteration of working conditions stood between the negotiators.

ARMED MEXICANS INVADING TEXAS

GOVERNOR COMMANDS SHERIFFS AND DEPUTIES TO REPORT IN EDWARDS COUNTY.

AMERICANS ARE STONED

Mob Shouting "Remember Rodriguez,"
Starts Race Demonstration—Sheriff
Makes Official Report of Rock Springs Lynching.

Austin, Tex.—Governor Campbell of Texas received a long-distance call from the sheriff of Edwards county saying he had received a telegram from Del Rio to the effect that armed Mexicans are marching to Rock Springs because of the recent lynching.

Governor Campbell ordered the sheriff to have all the sheriffs and deputies from surrounding counties report to him at once. The governor is also getting into communication with the state rangers. If word be he will order out the state militia.

The governor received advice from Chihuahua, Mexico, saying that a party of Americans were stone there after a race demonstration.

An official report from the sheriff and leading citizens of Rock Springs of the burning at a stake of Rodriguez for the murder of Mrs. L. J. Henderson, says that several Mexicans of that community participated in the lynching, and that it was the Mexicans who suggested burning him when the mob had planned to hang him.

SHORT STATE ITEMS

Societies to Honor Hero.
Springfield.—A revolutionary hero who lived for years in Missouri, and who at his death was one of the oldest men in the state, will be honored soon through the efforts of Springfield Revolutionary War societies. The hero of the early days of American history was Nathan Clifton, who at the age of 109 years, died in Greene county in 1845. He came west in 1820, locating in Tennessee, and in 1840 moved to Greene county, settling in a portion of the county which was later used in forming Webster county.

Missouri Teachers Meet.
St. Joseph.—Twenty-five hundred school teachers from every county in Missouri were attending the forty-ninth annual convention. President J. A. Koontz of Carrollton presided at the opening session. Vice-President C. H. McClure of the Warrensburg normal, Secretary Luther Hardaway of Jefferson City and Miss Anna J. Webster of Kansas City made addresses. An address by Dr. A. E. Winchell of Boston and committee and state society meetings of special teachers took up the first afternoon.

Two Missouri U. Men Elected.
Columbia.—Edgar A. Jarman (Rep.), who was graduated from the school of law of the University of Missouri last year, was elected as prosecuting attorney of Putnam county. Mr. Jarman lives in Unionville, the county seat of Putnam county. A. W. Lafferty, an alumnus of the University of Missouri, who won his LL. D. degree in 1899, has been chosen as one of the Republican congressmen from Oregon.

Cane Given to "Blip" Phelps.
Carthage.—A great delegation, representing practically all of the business men of the city and many of the voters of all political parties, called at the residence of Col. W. H. Phelps and gave him an elegant and costly cane, with gold head, inscribed: "From the Voters of the First Jasper County Legislative District to Colonel W. H. Phelps."

Knights Templars to Banquet.
Sedalia.—All grand officers of the Knights Templar of Missouri will be in Sedalia December 1, when St. Omer Commandery No. 11 of Sedalia will exemplify the degree work. Masons will be present from Jefferson City, Lexington, Marshall, Booneville, Clinton and Warrensburg. A banquet will be given the grand officers that night.
